Program planning:

Program Plan :

During the month of April, Babies and toddlers explored various activities on emergent curriculum program planning under the big idea of Connecting and Disconnecting. We planned lots of activities where children learned through hands-on experience. As their interest is getting shifted now, in the month of May children will be learning about Mixing/Pouring/Blending through different play experiences.

During the month of April, Preschoolers explored various activities on emergent curriculum program planning under the big idea of Spring. We planned lots of activities where children learned through hands-on experience. As their interest is getting shifted now, in the month of May children will be learning about Cycles through different play experiences. They will learn about plant cycle, butterfly cycle etc.

During the month of April, Kinder and Osc explored various activities on emergent curriculum program planning under the big idea of Space adventure.
